SPECTACULAR DIVING HOLIDAYS DIVE LOCATIONS & PADI DIVING CENTRES

Peninsular Malaysia is separated from Sumatra by the Straits of Malacca. The South China Sea separates the peninsular Malaysia from Sarawak & Sabah.

Western Peninsular Malaysia coast: Pangkor Island and Payer Island.

Eastern Peninsular Malaysia coast: Perhentian Island, Redang Island, Pulau Kapas, Pulau Tenggol and the Tioman group of islands feature good coral growth and abundant fish life.

Surrounded by South China Sea and the Sulawesi Sea, Sabah has the true oceanic depths of 600ms to more than 1000ms: Pulau Layang Layang, the Tunku Abdul Rahman Park islands.

At Pulau Sipadan one should be an advance diver.

Pulau Lankayan, Pulau Mabul and Pulau Kapalai are famous for their 'muck dives' (that is Scuba diving in the coral rubble areas seeking out macro animals).

GOLFING HOLIDAYS: There are about 200 Golf Courses located throughout Peninsular Malaysia, the islands of Langkawi and Penang and further in Sabah and Sarawak on the island of Borneo.

We can tailor an itinerary to suit your requirements mixing in as much or as little golf as is desired.

We will make sure that partners, friends and children who are not big fans of golf have plenty of alternatives available at the resorts to keep them entertained.

Many of the golf courses are part of resorts with other facilities: swimming pools, sauna, Kid's Club, restaurants.. Some are located close to the bigger cities giving plenty of opportunities for shopping!

Prices are for indication only. Validity 31.10.08
